RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY

1. On 15 July 1950 the Artillerie Kaserne, Perleberg (M 54/T 70), was occupied only by a rear unit of about 150 men who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank insignia. The airfield installations also housed only a rear unit of about 150 men wearing red-bordered black epaulets. *
2. Only a few soldiers and little motor traffic were observed in the installation on Lindenstrasse, Perleberg, between 17 July and 4 August 1950. Only about a third of the windows seen from the street were lighted in the evenings.
3. Captain Ivanoff Nikolai was identified as chief of the Soviet komendatura on Berlinerstrasse.
